- In October 2019, the Hon'ble Supreme Court issued a ruling regarding the definition of Adjusted Gross Revenue ("AGR") and associated fees and charges, which was reaffirmed in subsequent hearings in March 2020 and July 2021 with respect to AGR liabilities, that may have a material financial impact on certain tenants which could affect their ability to discharge their obligations under agreements with the Company. In September 2020, the Hon'ble Supreme Court defined the expected timeline of ten years for AGR payments owed by tenants of the Company under the ruling. Subsequently, on September 15, 2021, the Government of India announced a relief package and a series of reforms for the telecom sector including four-year of moratorium on spectrum and AGR payments which will have a bearing on the improved liquidity and financial health of the telecom companies in India. The Company will continue to monitor the impact due to the developments arising out of Hon'ble Supreme Court Order, as it is possible that the estimated future cash flows may differ from current estimates, and changes in estimated cash flows from certain tenants could have an impact on recorded Property, plant and equipment, capital work in progress, intangible assets including tenant-related intangibles, Right-of-use assets, Revenue equalisation reserve and Goodwill. The Code has been published in the Gazette of India. However, the date on which the Code will come into effect has not been notified. The Company will assess the impact of the Code when it comes into effect and will record any related impact in the period the Code becomes effective.

The passive infrastructures as well as active telecom operations of the Company's customers are covered under essential services which are actively engaged in fulfilling the surge in demand arising out of the choice exercised by almost all industries to conduct their operations remotely. Hence, the telecom industry is among the businesses that are least impacted due to COVID-19. The Company believes that thus far, there is no significant impact of COVID-19 pandemic on the financial position and performance of the Company. Further, the Company is not expecting any significant change in estimates as of now as the Company is running its business and operations as usual without any major disruptions.

- Previous year/periods figures have been regrouped/rearranged wherever necessary to conform to the current period grouping.
